

I believe that satellite radio should be able to broadcast any material that a local station can. If this bothers the NAB, let them buy a transponder. Free enterprise means competition. If the NAB doesn't want their members to compete, then they are failing their own members. Competition will be able to bring out the best in both satellite and local radio.